ABOUT THE EVENT

In the early 1990s, a small group of automobile enthusiasts banded together to organize the Philadelphia Vintage Grand Prix which was held in Fairmount Park. The event was well attended and the roster of vintage competitors was impressive. However, several factors caused the event to end after a few years of operation. That enthusiast group then started to think of another way to bring these wonderful vintage vehicles together for the public to enjoy.

Michael G. Tillson III was one of those organizers. In 1997, Michael and his fellow enthusiasts decided to bring together classic cars and the world of horses and fox hunting – by staging a benefit Concours d'Elegance at the Radnor Hunt in the rolling country of Chester County, Pennsylvania. Over the years, the event has grown from its humble beginnings with a handful of exceptional cars, to a showfield of one hundred entries chosen by the Car Selection Committee.

In 2005, vintage motorcycles were added to the show field, making the Concours the first nationally ranked event of its type to include motorcycles. The addition of horse drawn coaches and carriages in 2007 made the event the only concours to feature the earliest forms of wheeled transportation.

Radnor Hunt Concours d'Elegance has grown from its humble beginnings to a three-day event that includes a Friday Night Barbecue, the Chester County Road Rally and Black Tie Gala on Saturday evening culminating in the main event on Sunday; the Concours d'Elegance. Proceeds from the event benefit a local non-profit organization; Thorncroft Therapeutic Horseback Riding in Malvern, PA.

BENEFICIARY

Thorncroft Therapeutic Horseback Riding, Inc.

Since 1969 Thorncroft, located in Malvern, PA has been serving individuals in a mainstreamed environment. Riders with and without disabilities ride, work and learn together.

Today the Farm has grown to where the 70-acre facility offers both indoor and outdoor riding arenas, a stable of 31 carefully selected horses and a staff of 18 educated, compassionate instructors. These instructors work with riders of all ages who have a variety of skill levels and special challenges such as Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Down Syndrome and Veterans who have served our country.

Every day a life is changed at Thorncroft. A child with autism finds her voice as she speaks her first word to her favorite pony. A man recovering from a stroke is lifted from his wheel chair to gain strength and muscle tone as he rides one of our gentle therapy horses. A woman with chronic illness captures a moment of serenity on a sunny day trail ride. A veteran leans against his horse, breathing in peace and kindness, discovering a new haven from the difficulty of everyday life. The stories of transformation and hope are never-ending.

Saunders and Sallie Dixon, and their staff, wish to express their sincere appreciation for the honor of being the beneficiary of this prestigious event, The Radnor Hunt Concours d'Elegance.
